Welcome to VOICE USA

Welcome to the Summer edition of Full Gospel Business Men's VOICE USA. We are halfway through 2021 as we continue to experience a fresh out pouring of God's Love in our lives "... because the love of God has been poured out in our hearts by the Holy Spirit who was given to us." (Romans 5:5)

In this issue you will see pictures from our recent USA National Convention. Prior to the start of the convention, men from across the United States worked together in Fire Team outreaches sharing with people in the Miami area why "We are The Happiest People on Earth". This resulted in 308 people praying and accepting Jesus as their Lord & Savior ... "that if you confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus and believe in your heart that God has raised Him from the dead, you will be saved. For with the heart one believes unto righteousness, and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation." (Romans 10:9-10)

In the following pages we believe that you will enjoy reading the life-changing testimonies from: Ted DiBiase, Jorge Segersbol, Marty Celaya and Bob Nations. We pray that as you read, you too will be encouraged to "trust in the Lord with all your heart, and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways acknowledge Him, and He shall direct your paths." (Proverbs 3:5-6)

When you have the opportunity, please pass this issue of VOICE USA along to others who will be blessed to hear the "Good News" about how much God loves them.

Who We Are

Our Mission Statement

1. To reach men for Jesus Christ.
2. To call men back to God by walking in Love.
3. To help believers to be baptized in The Holy Spirit.
4. To train and equip men and women to fulfill the Great Commission.
5. To provide an opportunity for Christian fellowship.
6. To bring unity among all people in the body of Christ.
7. To do the things that Jesus did ... even more so. John 14:12

Our Core Values

"Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength." The second most important commandment is this: 'Love your neighbor as you love yourself.'"
Matthew 22:37-39

With God's Help,

We Commit Ourselves to:

- Love – sacrificing for the good of others
- Integrity – choosing to do the right thing
- Relationship – value people above all other things
- Commitment – no obstacle is too great, never give up
- Networking – opportunities are born by reaching out to others
- Training – equipped for every good work
- Transforming – making this world a better place by God's power

The Intercontinental Hotel at Doral Miami was the hotel host for the May 20-22 USA National Convention. Full Gospel participants came away refreshed and re-energized by the Holy Spirit. There was great fellowship, anointed speakers, and tremendous worship music experienced by all. Some described the tremendous unity during the three days as a “great sea of love.”

“Enter Into His Rest” was the theme of the convention. This was given to New England Field Rep. Roger Ringuette by the Holy Spirit.

Prior to the USA Convention, Fire Teams fanned out across Miami, Florida, spearheaded by Sergio Oseguera. 308 people received Christ into their hearts!! (See Fire Team photos on page 7)

Dave MacBurnie, National Director of Prayer for FGBMFI-USA, introduced the Convention Prayer Team. They had been meeting and praying by Zoom for months prior to the Convention. Northwest Regional Director, Bill Wilson, shared the vision by Demos Shakarian.

SPECIAL REPORT

Mike Postlewait, USA National President, emphasized that the Holy Spirit was calling men and women back to God by walking in love.

Mario Garcia, International President, gave his blessing on the USA Convention, and twice forcefully challenged the men and women gathered to be “on fire” through the Holy Spirit.

Each Regional Director gave their individual reports how their region was expanding. Doug Woolley oversaw the Chapter Delegates’ Meeting which included the election of the USA National President. Mike Postlewait humbly accepted his re-election to another three-year term as USA National President. Leadership, including Mario Garcia, gathered around Mike to pray God’s blessing upon him personally, as well as the fellowship as a whole.

Ladies of the Fellowship also had their three-hour special meeting. Charlotte Carrette and Sandy Cantu ministered to the ladies. Thrilling reports were given by many others, to include George Segersbol, National VP and Director of Norm Cheever told about the success of God-Mobiles and Andrew Kaminski talked about the Prison ministries. Tim King told about the tremendous global outreach of Zoom meetings.

People were at the Convention by “divine appointment.” This was manifest many times as one-on-one prayers were given where many received divine breakthroughs in their particular situations. John Carrette and Jaime Sol tandem ministered together on the final evening service on Healing, the Vision and the Holy Spirit. The entire crowd was rejuvenated by these two anointed speakers.

As Jose Sikaffy, Convention Coordinator from Miami, best summed it up: “As a national convention, it was amazing to see the support and unity of other nations.” Our thanks to Jose and the entire Miami team who made this convention all possible. ■

2021 FGBMFI USA CONVENTION • MIAMI FIRE TEAMS

We went to give love, hope, and faith!
In addition, we received that, too!

The Miami Fires Teams experienced:

- The presence of the Holy Spirit.
- All Fire Team members were absolutely united in Spirit.
- Miracles were experienced by unconverted people.
- All the time, God was with us.
- When we work together, everything is possible.
- New members enjoying the Fire Team experience.

THE RESULT:

308 DECISIONS TO FOLLOW CHRIST!

Thank you, Sergio Oseguera (National Director of USA Fire-Teams) for a great report!

WORLDWIDE WRESTLING STAR

Ted DiBiase is...

THE MILLION

Ted DiBiase achieved championship success as a wrestler, holding thirty titles during his professional wrestling career.

DOLLAR MAN

In 1975, I started my professional career in wrestling. Following in my dad's footsteps ("Iron Mike DiBiase") was no small task, but I stuck with it: all those bologna sandwiches, the all-night rides in the back of an automobile, being away from home for weeks at a time. Believe me, my body was pounded. I did "pay some dues" on my rise to the top of wrestling.

Vince McMahon, head of the World Wrestling Federation, said to me, "I want to create a character who is so filthy rich that he throws money around like it's nothing. He is the kind of guy who can buy anyone or anything. He's a character whose god is money. I see him as a man who lives by the motto, 'Every man has his price!' Ted, you're going to be the hottest, most hated heel in all of wrestling. The only thing I don't have nailed down is the name."

Without missing a beat, I piped up, "I know what we should call him. How about the Million Dollar Man!"

The rest is history. My wrestling career skyrocketed to "superstar" status. Appearing before 80,000 at Wembley Stadium, Madison Square Garden, taking the title belt from Hulk Hogan, the Super Dome, Tokyo Dome, national and international television appearances, on and on. I became very accustomed to the "bad boy" lifestyle of the Million Dollar Man around the world.

Recognized by everyone wherever I go around the globe did a lot of stroking of my ego. It seems like all the sacrifices I made starting in the wrestling business were now all worthwhile. It was first-class treatment, five-star hotels, limousines, and liquor – and nothing could stop me. Even dolls and pinball machines were designed after me, the Million Dollar Man.

The wrestling industry popularity had risen to new heights. It is still one of the most popular entertainment sports in the entire world. It grew to new heights I could have never imagined it would grow. When I first became the Million Dollar Man, there was a very clear line as to who were the good guys and who were the bad guys. At that time, the moral of the story was that “crime did not pay.” Now, through the control of money and “what the people want,” there are the bad guys, then there are the worse guys. The villain is now glorified.

“In the midst of this whirlwind of success, the Million Dollar Man became less of an act for the public and more of the real me.”

I began to yield to some of the temptations that were coming my way as a result of my celebrity status. The most important person in my life was me – not God, not Melanie, not my boys.

The Million Dollar Man is fondly remembered by wrestling fans for his style and command of the ring.

Ted DiBiase is a WWE Hall Of Fame professional wrestler, best known for his role as the villainous “Million Dollar Man.”

My wife, Melanie, hung in there with me, through thick and thin. I was not the perfect husband or father. But my pride was too big to really admit that to her. So I just went to the next stadium or event. It was easy for me to “get into character”!

One day my wife confronted me with some of the sins I had been committing against her. Swallowing hard, I admitted my wrongdoing. Facing up to Mel was forcing me to face up to myself. “What am I going to do now?” It was God’s “wake-up call”!

A pastor friend of mine asked Melanie and I to attend a youth convention in Chicago, to help repair the breach in our marriage. The preacher’s message bored a hole through me like a laser beam from God. “Accept Jesus Christ as your Savior and your sins will be forgiven.” It all began to make sense to me. This is why my personal life was crashing down around me. God had tried to get my attention many times. Now I was at a place where I was finally listening.

He invited those who wanted to receive this forgiveness to get up out of their seats and to come to the front of the room. It was the most significant time in my life. Normally, I would never want anyone to see any trace of emotion from me, but that night was not a “normal” night. I was the first person to respond. I ended up at the foot of the cross. For years I had supposedly professed Christ, but I had selfishly held on to ego. I was finally born into the family of God! That was in the early Spring of 1992.

I would have to prove myself to my wife, Melanie, over the test of time. She told me she was willing to stay with me, and to this day I am eternally grateful that the Lord has given me such a wonderful woman.

Even though my life was transformed, it was only the beginning of a personal journey and process. It was a gradual growth, because I was still living in the wrestling world. Facing my wife is when I truly surrendered. That is why discipleship is so important. You are going to fail, maybe even several times. But God is faithful, even when we're not.

I eventually left the WWF for the World Championship Wrestling, headed by Ted Turner. It was much "cleaner." Following two herniated disks in my neck, I switched to be a ring commentator and announcer for three years, eventually leaving professional wrestling after a 25-year career. I am still recognized wherever I go.

I used to pray, "God, forgive me, it has taken me so long.

I've wasted so much time." But what I realize is that God doesn't make mistakes and nothing happens by accident. Everything I went through was part of a process that God had to take me through. It was my "wilderness" experience. While I was yet a sinner in the world, God was building a platform for me. God allowed me to be "The Million Dollar Man". God allowed me to have national and worldwide exposure, and to ultimately use that exposure to bring glory to His Kingdom. That is what I am trying to do now.

Ted DiBiase is now a Christian minister.

As I eventually started going out and sharing my experience, I began to see how God was using me to touch lives for God. One of the first fellows I prayed with received Christ into his heart. Breaking down, I cried harder than he, for I realized that God had just used me to lead somebody to Him. It was an awesome realization! Thousands have come into a personal relationship with Jesus Christ through the NEW “Million Dollar Man”. I am not preaching to tickle the ears of Christians who want to be entertained. I am reaching out to wrestling fans that are lost, to draw them to the Gospel.

I use the Million Dollar Man character. He is the devil, the epitome of worldliness. His god is money. At the beginning of my presentation, I make that perfectly clear. By the time that evening is over, I come out of that character and I share my heart and the Gospel. It has a very powerful effect. They realize that the real power is the power of Jesus Christ, the power of God through the Holy Spirit!

Every man has his price. A REAL man says, “Ted, we cannot be bought, because we have been purchased by the blood of Jesus Christ!” ■

Ted DiBiase is fulfilled by his relationship with Jesus Christ and his family, and a controlling desire to do God's will in his life. Ted is married to his lovely wife Melanie for almost 32 years and they have three sons: Michael, Ted Jr., and Brett. Ted challenges men and women to be people of character and integrity. Ted's character “The Million Dollar Man” has resurfaced at the WWE (World Wrestling Entertainment) where he makes special appearances for his many fans.

SEARCHING FOR THE TRUTH

By George Segersbol
Texas

When I was growing up I was sick all the time and for that reason I had to stay home while my friends were outside playing. I started asking ... why? That led into what is the purpose of life? And so on.

Time passed and when I was about 20 or so, while I was studying at a university and working in a bank, I was out on a date when I heard a voice in my heart asking: "It's that all you want from life?" I felt so strange that we left the disco and when I got home I started crying. I said to myself: "I know that there is more to life indeed but where can I find the truth about it?". So I started reading many books on philosophy, new age, etc.—all that I could get my hands on. I also visited and participated in different religions—and even though I felt some type of peace deep inside, I knew that it was not the answer that I was looking for.

For many days a co-worker had keep inviting me to a meeting. He was talking about Jesus like he knew Him in person. I laughed at him but I realized that he was always in peace and all things seemed to go well for him. I told him that I would go to one of his meeting but only if he promised never to bother me again.

George Segersbol serves as the FGBMFI USA Executive Vice President and Director for the Hispanic chapters.

Later at that meeting, the place was full of very humble people that were in such peace and seemed to be full of joy. I heard the person that was in charge of the meeting say: “Everyone has heard about Jesus but very few know Him in person”. I said: “I will invite Jesus to my heart but I don’t want to be part of your religion”. He smiled and answered: “This is not about a religion ... but about a relationship between you and Him.” I made a short prayer and immediately I felt something heavy coming out of my shoulders. I felt the presence of the Lord in front of me even I couldn’t see Him and broke in tears. The room smelled like Jasmin flowers. After that day my life changed forever.

Today, I am married to my beautiful wife Maria Elena, whom I saw in a dream after asking God for a wife, started a window covering business and also worked as a new markets developer, went back to the university to get my degrees, and have seen God opening doors while giving me insights for business and favor. I have traveled to many states in our nation and also many nations all over the world as to share about His goodness and understood what it is finally to know the truth. Today I serve as the FGBMFI USA Executive Vice President and director for the Hispanic chapters. ■

LORD, WHERE DO I FIT IN?

By Marty Celaya, California

The late FGBMFI International President Richard Shakarian, Marty Celaya, and Ron Weinbender.

At the age of nineteen years old, I asked Jesus into my life. Being raised in a Catholic family, I always heard about God, but I didn't know Him. One night after hanging out with my friends drinking a few beers, I went into my bedroom in my parents house, knelt down by the side of my bed, and said, "God, if you are for real, please show yourself to me!"

From that time on, I accepted Jesus as my Lord and savior, and I became a Christian. I soon plugged into a local church where I began to serve in many ministries for the next several years. In my late twenties, I got married and started a family. The next thing you know, our beautiful children, Sara and Adam came into the world. I worked as an electrician by trade during these growing years, always being involved in some type of ministry.

Fast forward to the year 1996. I was praying one night in the month of June, and I heard the Holy Spirit say to me, "You will be doing things differently very soon." I didn't quite understand this, so I went on with my life working as an electrician and serving in the church.

In November of that same year, my good friend, Evangelist Tim Storey, took me to the headquarters of the Full Gospel Businessmen to meet then International President, Richard Shakarian. Richard asked me to stick around for a few days so I could become familiar with the fellowship. After a few days, I had to return back to my construction job.

*I heard the Holy Spirit
say to me,
"You will be doing things differently very soon."*

Marty Celaya ministering in prayer.

As we entered the new year in January of 1997, a woman who claimed to prophesy said she had a word for me. Standing in a hotel lobby in Beverly Hills, California while I attended a Hollywood Bible Study, she asked if she could pray for me. What came out of her mouth were prophetic words that at the time, didn't make sense to me.

She said, "The Lord is showing me that you will be standing before government leaders and business people very soon!" I had no idea what she was talking about. I graciously thanked her and went on my way.

Two months later in the middle of the day, I received a phone call from Ron Weinbender and Richard Shakarian asking if I could meet them both at the international headquarters. When I arrived, they both presented me with the opportunity to come work for the fellowship as the USA National Director of Chapters. Dreams do come true!

LORD, WHERE DO I FIT IT?

Up until this time, I had always said to the Lord, “Where do I fit in as an electrician?” There were very few large ministries at that time made up of Christian businessmen and laymen. I humbly accepted this position which was the beginning of a whole new life. Working side by side for the next few years with Richard Shakarian and Ron Weinbender, was one of the greatest honors of my life.

During these few years working at the International headquarters, I was blessed to work with Dr. Jerry Jenson writing for this wonderful VOICE MAGAZINE. I would write down the many chapter testimonies from all around the world. It was so great to travel the nation representing the headquarters speaking in chapters all around America. It was during these early years that I met so many wonderful people from the fellowship.

After leaving my job at the fellowship in 1999, I went on to become a businessman in the area of finances, as well as an author, a pastor and minister. I continued to work closely with my good friend Richard Shakarian over the years, assisting the fellowship with many projects including helping to coordinate the 50th anniversary for FGBMFI. I was honored to write a few books for Richard and Vangie Shakarian working with Richard as one of his right-hand men.

International President Mario Garcia and Marty Celaya.

Marty Celaya, Vangie Shakarian and Irma Celaya.

Over the years along with being a life-time member of the fellowship, I became a Pastor to the Shakarian family which I still am to this day. It was my great honor to work with Richard Shakarian closely in the last few years of his life. I was blessed to film him in his home as he addressed the World

Convention crowd in Honduras, which was the first convention he could not attend.

The Lord allowed me to stand with the family praying for seven weeks at Richard's bedside believing God for our President's healing before he received his ultimate healing towards heaven. Along with the family and many wonderful people, it was my honor to lead the coordination of our International President's home going where leaders came from all around the world.

Another dream became a reality in 2019 when our new International President, Mario Garcia asked my wife to sing, and he asked me to speak at the World Convention in Guatemala before thousands of people. Again, my wife and I were so blessed as Mario asked me to be the Master of Ceremony for the first ever Virtual World Convention in 2020. My wife Irma opened the opening ceremonies in song. We were so honored.

Today my wife and I remain close to our dear friend Vangie Shakarian and her wonderful family. Vangie so graciously provided the foreword for my latest book, “There’s More to Your Life Story, Living Your Ultimate Life.” Thank you Vangie.

When I asked the Lord one day, where does a guy like me fit in, He knew exactly where I was supposed to be. The Full Gospel Businessmen’s Fellowship has changed my life forever. The friendships I have made with brothers and sisters all over the world has been one of my greatest Joys in life.

Today my wife and I pastor Encouragement Community

Often people will ask me, “Are you a Pastor, an author, a producer, what are you?” My response to them is, “well, I’m actually a proud Full Gospel Businessman who gets to do many things, and I am eternally grateful. ■

WE NEVER CALLED HIM MASTER

By Bob Nations, Missouri

Bob Nations (right) and his son, Adam at their business.

It was in 1976 that my wife Bonnie and I went to a revival at the Presbyterian Church, with a speaker from the Methodist Church, (Arthur Fulbright) when we were members of the First Christian Church (this seems to foreshadow an ecumenical happening in our lives).

We were searching and thirsty and hungry for truth and relationship with God. We REMEMBER the song they were teaching us at that revival meeting ... “Jesus, Jesus, Jesus, there’s just something about that Name ... Master, Savior, Jesus, like the fragrance after the rain ...”

We sang it over and over to learn it for the first time, and our hearts knew ... we had never called Him “Master” ... This God that we had known about all our lives ... the One we had heard about in church all our lives ... the One we had colored pictures of in Vacation Bible School all our lives ... had never been given the place as “Master,” all our lives. Bonnie and I were both raised in church going families ... but as the saying goes “staying in a church building all of your lives, doesn’t make you a Christian any more than living in a doghouse will make you a dog.”

“Staying in a church building all of your lives, doesn’t make you a Christian any more than living in a doghouse will make you a dog.”

God had CALLED us all our lives. We both remember moments when our baptism experience, or a song, or a sermon, or summer camp had graciously called to our hearts to surrender; but there was always a quick return to our own way. FINALLY, God had furrowed the stony ground around our hearts, and destroyed the clumps and hard spots to allow the soil of our hearts to receive God’s seed. His Word. What a patient Redeemer we have! Before that time, we had seen miracles, healings, and had even been youth leaders at church, and had two babies, and still had not given Him credit for our blessings, and the place of King over our lives. But on that night of revival, we were ready to surrender!

After being born again, our pastor told us that he was concerned about us, because all we could talk about was Jesus. So, we left that church, with our hearts on fire, our little green Living Bibles in our hands, and our Master the Lord Jesus.

Immediately the scripture showed us Jesus telling the disciples, and us to receive the Baptism of the Holy Spirit! So, we eagerly DID! Without hands laid on us, organs playing in the background, or people shouting hallelujah, we were baptized! At home, with just the instruction from the Word, and Jesus, our Baptizer, we were filled with the Holy Spirit and began speaking in tongues, just as the Word says! He is so real!

God had created this man and this woman to serve together in him! One month after receiving the Holy Spirit, we attended our first Full Gospel Businessmen's Meeting! And oh! How we drank it in! Every testimony, song, scripture, prophecy, teaching was a feast to our hungry souls! The more we took in, the more we wanted. The more we read and memorized scripture, the more we wanted. The more we did the works of the scriptures, the more we wanted to do. We had to share!! We had to tell everyone!! Bonnie asked one of the FGBMFI leaders, "How long has this been going on?!" And he gently replied, "About 2000 years."

Then God said to me: "If you will give me your business, I will give you Mine ..."

I wanted God to have it ... my work at the business; our work at home; ... not just a partnership, but ownership over every part of our lives ... all of it ... all of it ... all of it! And He put me in business with Him. I wasn't sure at first what my job was, but He explained: Bob and Bonnie, you will go into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature “... in my name you will cast out demons; you will speak in new tongues; you will take up serpents; and if you drink anything deadly, it will by no means hurt you; you will lay hands on the sick and they will recover.

“ ... and we went out and preached everywhere, the lord working with us, and confirming the word through the accompanying signs. Amen” the end of Mark’s gospel and the beginning of ours.

Airlifts with FGBMFI have taken us to the Philippines, Brazil, Israel, Australia, Solomon Islands, USA, and to a 6 month stay in Paraguay. World conventions keep us in contact with brothers around the world. At home, I quickly learned that the pockets of my sports coats were made for the Voice magazine. So with my pockets full, I can head out with Voice testimonies to share with others everywhere I go.

But before the airlifts, and before much teaching or training, we were spending the day with another family and their 3 children. We swam, then picnicked and fellowshiped together. It was when we were cleaning up, that we heard Sherri's Dad saying, "Sherri, get out of the pool." We glanced toward the pool, and the other kids were sitting alongside the pool, just playing ... when her Dad shouted, "Sherri, Get Out of the pool!!"

With that, we all ran toward the pool. I jumped down from an 8 foot wall, and rushed into the water, and pulled Sherri's limp and lifeless body from the water and laid her on the concrete. We all immediately began praying in tongues as we started CPR. Sherri's body was blue from head to toe, and there was no response, no breath, no movement. As Bonnie did heart compressions, still praying in tongues, she saw (with her eyes open) a bubble figure covering Sherri's nose and mouth, with a smirk of evil on that face-like bubble ... and the figure said, 'I've got her now!'

In the next moment, Jesus spoke through Bonnie, "Spirit of Death! Leave this child!" (It came through Bonnie, we all heard it, but it was not her initiative, It was all Jesus) It startled her, but then with the authority of the Master, Bonnie repeated, "Spirit of death, leave this child in Jesus' Name!" With that command, a rumble began deep in Sherri's body, and rose up through her chest, and she began to vomit. Death was leaving, and life returning!! Praise God! As color returned to her body, we carried her inside. Soon, the medics arrived and checked her over. Their report was that there was no sign of water in her lungs or any damage to her body! Praise God!

Later that evening, we returned to the pool, full of questions at what had taken place. It was there that the Lord sent us back to Mark's gospel, saying " ... in my name you will cast out demons, you will speak in new tongues, ... and if you drink anything deadly (our example was pool water) it will by no means hurt you; you will lay hands on the sick, and they will recover ... and you went out ... the Lord working with you, confirming the word through the accompanying signs.” Jesus had given us ‘on the job training’ for His Business!

We see many healed, delivered, saved and filled with the baptism of the Holy Spirit. Visions, prophecies, dreams, personal words from Jesus are all part of the daily life our Master wants each of us to have. We know that every step (no matter what the direction) is ordered from the Lord. We are precious to Him, and we never have to wonder where He is, because He won’t leave us. We are His! Called! Chosen! A Royal Priesthood! Victorious! More than Conquerors! Warriors! Children of the Most High! We are HIS!

The world falls so far behind what God has for us. No business or achievement or doctorate or title can elevate us to the success, reward, peace, and joy, that god lifts us to! It is more than the eye can see or the ear can hear or even enter into your mind! He is the highest high ... the greatest great ... the king of kings ... the power of all powers ... and he seeks us! He wants us to belong to him with our whole hearts!

He who did not spare His own Son is more than willing to give us all things—He is only waiting for us. ■ to have a personal relationship with Jesus

SALVATION PRAYER

Please pray this prayer out loud and start a new life in Christ:

Dear Heavenly Father,

I come to You in the Name of Your Son, Jesus. I admit that I am separated from You because of my sins and I want to be right with You. Thank you for forgiving me of all my sins because of what Jesus did for me...“who Himself bore our sins in His own body on the tree, that we, having died to sins, might live for righteousness- by whose stripes you were healed.” (1 Peter 2:24)

The Bible says “that if you confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus and believe in your heart that God has raised Him from the dead, you will be saved. For with the heart one believes unto righteousness, and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.” (Romans 10:9-10) I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God. I believe that Jesus was raised from the dead for my justification. I confess Jesus as my Lord & Savior.

I am now saved! Thank You Father God! Thank You Lord Jesus! Thank You Holy Spirit!

PRAY TO RECEIVE THE BAPTISM OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

Receiving the Baptism of Holy Spirit is an enduement of power for service. A difference in our service for Christ should be seen after we're baptized with the Holy Spirit.

On the Day or Pentecost, Believers were gathered together in a house when they heard what sounded like a rushing mighty wind. It filled the house where they were gathered. Scripture tells us that they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began speaking with other tongues (Acts 2:1-4).

This experience is called being filled with the Holy Spirit. John prophesied, "I indeed baptize you with water unto repentance; but he that cometh after me ... shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost, and with fire." (Matthew 3:11)

You received The Holy Spirit when you accepted Jesus as your Lord & Savior by FAITH! You received the gift of salvation by FAITH. So begin to pray ... BY FAITH, I have received the Holy Spirit. Thank You Father God that the Holy Spirit dwells within me, because Jesus promised He would in His Word (John: 14:16-17). Now expect to speak in tongues, because believers spoke with tongues on the Day of Pentecost. And thank God, YOU will, too, as the Holy Spirit gives utterance. You will be blessed, strengthened and empowered as the Holy Spirit prays God's perfect will through you.

Notice, you must believe that you have received the Holy Spirit first, and then you will speak in tongues!
