Welcome to VOICE USA

It was Saturday morning, December 27, 1952 when Thomas Nickel, led by the Holy Spirit, had driven overnight to Clifton's Cafeteria in Los Angeles, CA to volunteer his printing presses so that Full Gospel would have a VOICE. This Holy Spirit tool became the trademark of Full Gospel Business Men's Fellowship. Since 1953, the dynamic testimonies of businessmen and women, whose lives have been transformed by the Holy Spirit, have brought inspiration and healing to hundreds of thousands worldwide.

We welcome you to this first edition of VOICE USA which shares some exciting stories from people who have been touched by the Love of God. "For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life. For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world through Him might be saved." (John 3:16-17)

We believe you will be blessed as you read the life-changing testimonies in this issue from: George Foreman, Norm Cheever and Alan Schmook. "And they overcame him (the devil) by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony, and they did not love their lives to the death." (Revelation 12:11)

We pray that you will be encouraged to "trust in the Lord with all your heart, and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways acknowledge Him, and He shall direct your paths." (Proverbs 3:5-6)

Welcome to VOICE USA. Enjoy!

The oldest man to ever recapture

Championship title, George Foreman.

My Mom's Words Followed Me!

Excerpts from a testimony given by George Foreman at a previous FGBMFI World Convention.

For years, I would hear my dear mother say that all of the time ... “Oh, Lord!” I didn’t understand that. I figured that one day I was going to have enough money so that I would never hear my mother say those words again, “Oh, Lord.”

Boxing promoters promised me, “George, one day you are going to have lots of cars, fleets of Cadillacs, and you can be very rich. You can have anything you’ve ever wanted.” So, I turned professional.

My career really took off with one knockout after another. I wanted to become rich and famous and be the heavyweight champion of the world so I could stop my dear mother from saying, “Oh, Lord.” I just didn’t want to be poor anymore. I wanted those fleets of Cadillacs.

One night in Kingston, Jamaica, I was there to fight Joe Frazier. My manager and I knew that if you hit Joe Frazier, he actually liked it. If you missed him, he got upset. There came that moment where you stand face to face and stare at each other. I looked at him right in the eye. I thought, “I hope Joe Frazier doesn’t look down, because then he would see that my knees were knocking.” But after two rounds, I was the heavyweight champion of the world!!

Now, I was the heavyweight champion of the world and I had the fleets of Cadillacs and a lot of money.

Ali "rope-a-dopes" to avoid Foreman's superior power.

I just didn't believe in this religious stuff. It didn't seem real. I had money and everything, what did I need to pray for? That is how I felt about it.

I kept winning and winning.

Then the time came to fight Ali in Zaire. I thought I would go over there and knock him out in two or three rounds. I would collect my money and go back home. I felt like no one could stand up to my power. Ali kept talking to me, "I am the greatest. I am the greatest." I thought, "Yeah, right."

I beat Ali up in the first few rounds. About the sixth round, when I was really doing great, I hit him in the side and he fell on me and he whispered in my ear, "Is that all you've got, George?" I admitted to myself, "Yep, that's about it."

The next thing I knew I was in trouble. I was looking for an exit. I was lying on the floor, being counted, "One, two, three ... ." I looked up and there was Ali screaming, "I told you." I thought, "Boy, if I could get my hands on him again!" You've heard of "Rope a dope"? Well, I'm the dope!

I knew I would kill him next time. The next time I was going to stop Ali forever. So I started training hard. I once again became the number one contender in the world. I sent that money back to momma and she still said, “Oh, Lord!”

I fought a young man by the name of Kenny Young. By the tenth round he knocked me down. After twelve rounds, the decision was made. I thought, “No big deal to me. That didn’t mean anything to me. He deserved a knockout. I can go back to my fame.” Afterwards, I waited around in my hot dressing room.

I reflected in the dressing room as I was cooling down. I thought, “I am still George Foreman. I still have my contract with ABC Sports. I am still rich. I still have money in the bank. I can go back to my ranch in Marshall, Texas and retire if I wanted ... and DIE!”

How did “die” get into my thought process? Wait a minute. I’ve got safe deposit boxes and money in the bank. I could retire right now and die. How did that DIE get in there? But I had all this strength. I’m not going to die. That boxing match didn’t mean anything to me, I wanted my life!! I started walking real fast. After all, I had to keep my life in me.

A voice said to me, “Do you believe in God?” Sure, I do. “If you believe in God, then why are you scared to die?” Wait a minute. Everybody believes in God. I did believe in God, but I just didn’t believe in this religious stuff. I thought, “I’ve been rich all these years. I can buy anything I want. Okay, I am still George Foreman. I can box and give money to charities, etc.”

I heard a voice say to me, “I don’t want your money. I want you!” I then knew it was God. I was given a chance to hear something that I had never heard before. I said, “God, I believe in you ... ”

But before I could say another word, my legs gave out. Just like that, I was gone “out of this life.” I was in this deep, dark nothing.

It was like someone had drug me off into a deep sea. There was nothing to hold onto. I was gone and I was dead. I looked behind me and I saw everything I had ever worked for: my money, my stock, my safe deposit box, but it was as if someone took a match to all of it. It was gone. I knew there wasn't any hope for me.

Then I got mad. I said, "I don't care if this here is death, I will still love you God." When I said that, it was as if a giant hand reached in and pulled me out of that dark place. I believed in God. The guys picked me up off the dressing room floor and put me on the table. I could feel blood flowing through my veins, so I was no longer afraid. I laid back and realized that if I was dying, I was going to die with God. I said, "Dr. Webb, move your hand, because the thorns on his head are making him bleed." I saw blood coming down my face. I hadn't been cut in a boxing match. I saw blood. "You're bleeding where they crucified him!" I jumped off the table and yelled, "Jesus Christ has come alive in me!" I told the guys that I had to clean myself. I ran for the shower and washed myself. "Hallelujah. I am clean. I have been born again!"

"I've got to go out and save the world," I yelled. I started telling people about Jesus Christ. I had a new strength, but it was through Jesus.

I experienced all kinds of riches, but at that moment in that dressing room, I felt everything I ever wanted to feel. In less than six seconds, I had everything that I had ever wanted in my life. Then they rushed me to intensive care.

That was almost thirty years ago. Little by little, people started calling me, "Brother George" or "Old Rev." I was ordained a minister and to this day I am a preacher in the church of the Lord, Jesus Christ.

My life is proof that God never gives up. But, you cannot make that boxing champion money as a preacher. I finally told my wife that I was broke, and that I had to go back into boxing.

Heavyweight Champion GEORGE FOREMAN

That was the only business that I really knew. She said, “Don’t do it. They are going to kill you.” I gathered my kids around the table and said, “What do you think?” They looked at me with that look of “Go get food!” I knew then what I had to do.

I kept boxing and people laughed at me. They made all kinds of jokes about George Foreman. “He will never be champion again. He is too old.” But in 1994, I became the oldest man to ever regain the championship of the world!

God made me very successful in all kinds of businesses. I believe the scripture that says, “Whatsoever my hand touches, I shall prosper.” Put your hand in His hand. Everything you touch will prosper. God has taken me into all kinds of places in the world, but I have never forgotten to tell this same story, that Jesus Christ is alive in me!

There is no better thing to do, even today, than to give Jesus Christ your life. I asked God to take my life and use it. I have been able to travel around the world and tell people about how great God has been to me. It doesn’t matter who you are. It doesn’t matter how many times you have heard your mother say, “Oh, Lord!” It doesn’t matter how broke you are.

But God took me and made me everything I could have dreamed of; and even more. Our living God can do the same for you. It doesn’t matter who you are or where you have come from. Just give him your life. Remember, God doesn’t want your money. He wants YOU! “Oh, Lord!” ■

DISCIPLES

by Norm Cheever
Scottsdale, Arizona

She prayed, “GOD HELP US!” Then the Lord heard my mother’s prayer. I was seven-years-old when Mom took us to a one-month revival at Central Assembly of God in Wichita, Kansas. Dad said he didn’t want to go because he heard they were “HOLY ROLLERS”.

After a week of verbal and physical abuse, he took us to hear the evangelist, Ralph Wilkerson. What a powerful message on God’s Love. After three altar calls, the evangelist jumped off the stage and came right up to my Dad. I could hear him pleading with Dad to turn his life to Jesus.

After taking two steps, he came back and said, “This may be from the Holy Spirit to you. This could be your last chance. You may die within a week, and then where will you go?” Well, that was all Dad could take. He turned loose of the deacon’s bench rail. When he hit the altars, he started crying out to God on the floor. He came up a different man. He was nicer and caring to all the family. Mom was happy for the first time in years.

After the extreme difference I saw in my Dad, I watched something begin to move in me. Before church one Sunday, I knocked on my parent’s door. Dad asked me to come in. I said, “Dad, I want to know the same Jesus who changed you.” We all knelt by the bed. I joyfully asked Jesus to forgive me of all my sins and come into my life. All of the family got saved and we got the new life the pastor had been preaching about.

During that time, I had severe learning problems in school. I was seeing some letters and numbers backwards, reading the same sentence several times because it didn’t make sense and I was extremely hyper. It was most likely

ADHD before it was ever called that. As a result of it, in order to gain attention, I became the class clown to get laughs. Along with salvation, came a healing for the learning disorders that plagued me, and I passed to the third grade.

About this time, Boeing Aircraft closed its doors and my Dad was offered a job in Phoenix, Arizona. Along with this, we followed our pastor from Kansas to a little church there called Central Assembly of God. This is where we learned about witnessing, deliverance, and the spiritual gifts. It was truly a Full Gospel church.

At this time, I had taught myself to play the guitar, and sang in the choir, and did lots of solos. I began to immerge in the music ministry.

When I turned 14, a man moved in two doors down from us and specifically asked for my help moving. I was glad to help, and he had invited me into his house. Immediately, I was aware of X-rated art on the walls and the altar where blood was dripping into a bowl from an upside-down cross. He noticed I quickly understood what was going on. He said, "We have the power to give you great wealth and fame in the world of music." He pushed a music contract in front of me and produced a dagger and said, “Just a little puncture; then sign this with your blood.”

The Holy Spirit had been talking to me for several years about spiritual warfare. I knew His voice. He told me not to read the contract and to give no blood. I got up and said, “NO.” As I walked out, he said, “If you change your mind, come back.”

That night, the Holy Spirit told me to put my Bible on my chest. I slept peacefully until about 2:30 a.m. I was awakened with a giant demon breathing on my face and companion devil’s eyes in the four corners of my room. My bed was at least four feet off the ground but the big one couldn’t crush me because of the Bible covering my chest, PRAISE GOD! I just said, “Oh, it’s you! Be gone in Jesus Name.” All the demons were gone immediately! THANK YOU, JESUS!

After a good night’s sleep, Mom yelled out, “Breakfast is READY!” I told her I would be there in five minutes, as there was something I needed to do. I knocked on the neighbor’s door. He looked happy to see me, and invited me in. I said, “NO, I’m not coming in. Did you send your companions to bother me last night?” He said, “Why, YES.” I told him to cease what he had planned. “I bind you and your demons in Jesus name, Amen.” He took a step back and said, “Anything else?” I told him to be gone to the place God has prepared for you, in Jesus Name. Then I rejoiced with the victory in Jesus and enjoyed Mom’s eggs and bacon.

Our family began to learn what Revelations 12:11 says, “We overcome by the blood of the Lamb, and the word of our testimony.”

At the age of 21, a friend of mine took me to the home of Pat Boone. Shirley Boone, Pat’s wife, immediately invited me into her backyard. She informed me that her father, Red Foley, set a standard of not taking things for granted when it came to important issues of life. Even though I was going to Southern California College, in Costa Mesa, California, which was a Bible college, she wanted to know if I knew Jesus Christ as my personal Savior. “Yes,” was my rapid response. I thanked her for making sure of my salvation. Wow, this kind of witness set a standard for sharing my testimony openly with others.

I believe Jesus calls us to go into the world and make disciples, one-on-one talking to people and mentoring them. We may ask them if there is something we can pray with them about, leading them to Jesus.

Later, I found the GODMOBILE, a soul winning machine inviting men and women to Jesus. Encouraging them to grow spiritually through daily prayer and reading God’s Word, finding a Bible-Believing Church and joining one of our FULL GOSPEL BUSINESS MENS’ AND WOMENS’ CHAPTERS, sharing our testimony wherever we go! He has turned every situation for His Glory. God has taken us from sin to salvation, healing and deliverance from evil. From an unnaturally curved spine, 4F classification by the Army to 1A classification. When Kathryn Kuhlman prayed over me, after being instantly healed, I entered the service as a Chaplain's Assistant in the U.S. Army.

God has brought me from failure as a youth to becoming a minister of music, teacher, artist, principal and lay minister in FGBMFI. I feel like I've gone from timidity to a confidence in Christ; knowing that "I can do all things through Christ". From a boy singing in the presence of the Lord under a palm tree into the lay ministry of FULL GOSPEL BUSINESS MEN'S FELLOWSHIP INTERNATIONAL. These past 15 years as Arizona Director have only been possible by the Grace of God. Though we've been through many tests and trials, my wife, Sandi and I, with our two daughters and six grandchildren have been blessed and walk in the victory in Jesus Christ our Lord.

I ask God to guide us when we rise early in the morning. Each day we get marching orders from God. Our FGBMFI founder and world director penned important words: We can only live in the ultimate dimension by becoming one with God. Yes, in Him, we live and move and have our being.

Are we willing to lay down our lives to do what Jesus says and go and make disciples? ■

SOLVING THE

By Alan M. Schmook – National President
Full Gospel Business Men's Fellowship in America

It is surprising what a small key it takes to unlock a lifetime of bondage. It was the spring of 1974, and I thought I had come to the end of my rope. All of my endeavors seemed to end in failure. I was continually haunted by my own insecurity ...

It was at this time I made, what I considered, one of the hardest decisions I had ever faced. I believed my wife and I were supposed to go see my parents, more specifically my father.

My relationship with my father had never been good. We had both been raised under an erroneous application of the concept of "constructive criticism." The lack of openly displayed love and affection and a heritage of over expectation and criticism of underperformance had been in our family for several generations. The criticism only fueled the insecurities in my life.

It all began in the early 1950s, when I was born the second son in a farming family from northwestern Oklahoma. My older brother exhibited excellent manners and good grades. Throughout my childhood my father had continually questioned why I couldn't be more like my brother. We both tested near genius level on an IQ test, yet he excelled as I kept failing. I would finish homework assignments, but I wouldn't turn them in for fear that I hadn't done as well as my older brother.

IMPOSSIBLE

This began a pattern of underachievement which plagued me for the next 20 some years.

All of my life, people who truly cared about me would try to figure out what was wrong. This led to exasperation on the part of my parents, teachers, counselors, doctors, and me. I never really knew what it was to be free.

I quit most of my jobs because I thought that the boss was going to fire me at my first review. Years later, I found out that some of my employers were so pleased with my work that they were planning to promote me and didn't understand why I had quit.

In the fall of 1970, during my freshman year at college, I came home and attended a Lay Witness Mission in my home church. That Saturday evening

Alan Schmook speaks at many FGBMFA Chapter meetings.

I received Jesus Christ as my Lord and Savior. WOW, did I feel great! I was no longer afraid of dying and going to hell. My parents and sister also received Jesus the same weekend as I did. The following summer, my parents asked me if I had received the Holy Spirit. I didn't know what they were talking about, so they explained that it was just more of Jesus. I asked Jesus to baptize me with the Holy Spirit, and He did with the evidence of speaking in other tongues. This provided a new power to witness and confidence in my salvation. However, I still dealt regularly with the problems of insecurity which affected my academic career and my job performance.

My romantic life had never been great. I only dated one girl during high school, but then she discovered her "Mr. Right" and married him. My next girlfriend looked like my future wife, but for the second time I wasn't her "Mr. Right," either. I felt devastated. So, I quit dating. Actually, I did not quit liking girls. I was just afraid of making more mistakes and being hurt. But while I was not willing to date, I was not thrilled with being alone. I asked God to show me who He had chosen to be my mate because I was not confident in my own decisions.

On July 15, 1972 I married more than the girl of my dreams. The Bible says God can do more than we can ask or imagine. I found this to be true when he supernaturally arranged my marriage to Patti. A brief excerpt of this fantastic portion of my life includes going on our first date two weeks after we became engaged.

I now know that Jesus paid the price for my total salvation (spiritually, emotionally, mentally, physically and financially). If I had known this in 1970 when I accepted Jesus Christ, I could have received my emotional and mental freedom then. Sadly, what you don't know can hurt you.

My father had received the key to unlock the bondage in my life while ministering to a friend of his who had two sons similar to my older brother and me. Surprisingly, my father had realized that he was part of my problem. Dad simply said, "Alan, you have been deceived. Forgive me." This was the first time I ever heard my father apologize to anyone. The impact of his repentance and my forgiveness destroyed the bondage that Satan had utilized to control my life for over 22 years.

The repentance of my father allowed God to destroy the power of the enemy over my life. However, I did not know how to be free. It's one thing to recover something that you have lost, but quite another to enjoy something you have never had. I knew that I needed to do something, so I began to do the things I had been afraid of or had failed at previously. In a matter of less than three years, I went from an entry position as a shoe store clerk to a store manager, overseeing several stores. It is neat to see what God can do when you will allow Him to make the choices.

In the mid 1970s I joined Full Gospel Business Men's Fellowship (FGBMF), as it was a great place for business people to share their faith and encourage one another. Also, at about the same time, my wife and I started conducting summer youth camps for up to 250 youths from more than a dozen churches in four states. What an adventure! We did this for the next ten years. As we began to phase out of youth camp, I became involved in coordinating FGBMF men's advances and conventions in our state. What a step from an insecure young man to leading businessmen's meetings!

I began my career as a commercial real estate consultant and appraiser in my father's company in 1976. During the first few years working with my father, we had our ups and downs. There were times I thought that he was a terrible boss, and I'm sure he thought I was a worthless employee. In 1985, I bought my father's remaining interest in Schmook Appraisal Company.

I have enjoyed the opportunity of building on the past reputation and strong foundation of my father in the real estate appraisal profession. Since 1985, the company has become known as a solver of unusual real estate problems. We are regularly sought out by major corporations, financial institutions, government agencies, and individuals to assist them in difficult real estate activities, which are many times "one-of-a-kind" properties. Our expertise in solving unique valuation questions has caused many of our competitors to refer assignments to us. Today, Schmook Appraisal Company is recognized regionally for its expertise in valuing difficult commercial real estate properties.

The God given wisdom to solve difficult problems has not been reserved for only the real estate market. I have taught, mentored, and trained public school students, business people, appraisers, and FGBMF leaders. God has allowed the revelatory gifts of the Holy Spirit to flow through my life and touch many individuals who seem to have problems with no answers.

In 2009, I transitioned to Full Gospel Business Men's Fellowship in America. In 2015 I was asked to serve on the National Executive Committee as the National Administrator. In 2018 I was elected as the National President of FGBMFA. From my humble beginnings to leading a national organization seems highly unlikely until you factor in the grace and favor of God. I believe that God's purposes for our lives are almost always greater than our history or our expectations.

I have had the opportunity to share my testimony with many FGBMF chapters, churches, radio stations, and on TBN's local Praise The Lord program. Each time, I am amazed at the number of people who are having trouble with self-confidence and insecurity. As we pray, God sets them free.

The parts of my life where I had the greatest fears and failures growing up have now become areas of opportunity for God to work through me to help others. I was afraid of my next job review, and now I get to pray with people for more work, better jobs, and promotions. WOW, isn't God great! ■

On March 1, 2015, I lost my best friend and wife after a 3 ½ year battle with cancer. I am still learning how to live in a strange new world after losing my partner of more than 42 years. But again, I have the opportunity to experience God's ability to solve the impossible, and I am looking forward to what he has planned for my future.
